ANNUAL TEACHERS INSTITUTE

The Maryland School for the Deaf is hosting the Annual Teachers Institute on Friday, October 14, 1977 on the Frederick Campus. This is an annual gathering of educators and other interested persons for the purpose of sharing information concerning the education of the deaf.

If you are interested in obtaining more information about this program call the Maryland School at 301-662-4159.

HOW'S YOUR TYPING??

The Office of General Services has begun a project which aims to validate the present typing requirements for secretarial and clerical positions. This project is being undertaken to insure that Gallaudet conforms to EEO guidelines and that they are equitable and non-discriminatory. Selected secretaries from the campus are being asked to participate.

GERTIE GALLOWAY NEW MAD PRESIDENT JACKIE ROTH WINS MISS MAD

On September 9 and 10, the Maryland Association of the Deaf convened at Ocean City. It was formal retirement time for past President Leon Auerbach as he turned his gavel over to Gertie Galloway. In the beauty pageant, emceed by Roz Rosen and Ramon Rodriguez, Jackie Roth capped both titles of the MAD Queen and Miss Talent. First runner-up was Jackie's co-worker, Mary Arrington.

ENERGY INFO

The lowest comfortable heating settings for your room or home offer the greatest economy. Every one degree of temperature above 70° costs 3.1% more, using any type of fuel - gas, oil, or electricity.

PL 94-142 NEWS

Gallaudet hosted two PL 94-142 workshops on campus last summer, one for professionals and one for parents from across the country. Feedback has been very positive.

A team went to Pennsylvania School for the Deaf to conduct a PL 94-142 inservice workshop for about 120 people on August 31 and September 1. Team members were Norma Clark, Linda Risser-Lytle, Ramon Rodriguez, and Roz Rosen.

Kendall School conducted PL 94-142 workshops for its parents on August 27, and September 18.

The new and final PL 94-142 regulations are now out, and schools everywhere are now in the process of developing Individual Education Programs for all handicapped children.

CONSUMER H-E-L-P

On October 4th the GWU Consumer Protection Center will begin service to deaf consumers in the Washington area. The program is designed to aid the deaf consumer in answering and solving problems of a consumer nature. If you feel that you have not been treated fairly by a store or merchant you now have the option to call via TTY for help. The lines will be open on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. This project will remain open as long as there's a need for it. The TTY number is 659-8357.

For more information contact the National Center on Law & the Deaf, ext. 445.

SECURITY TRAVEL INSTALLS TTY

The Security Travel Agency is now ready to handle travel business over their new TTY (797-5609). Instructions for using this new system are available from the Accounting Office.

Additional information can be obtained from Sam Wagner, ext. 325.

AMONG OURSELVES

--Welcome to Bonnie Waltz who has recently joined the Dept. of Counseling as a secretary.

--The Counseling Center wishes to welcome Cathy Abernathy and Ellen Jenkins to their staff.

--Jerry Bryan (Dept. of Audiology & Speech),
the Computer Graphics Research Group (Ohio
State University) and Dr. Withrow (Reston, Va.) have received $115,000.00 from the Captioned Films and Telecommunications Branch, Division of Media Services (HEW).
They will use a computer to produce three-dimensional television programs to aid language and speech learning. Bryan's responsibilities will include producing captions that appear at the same time as the spoken word and computer generated motion pictures showing inside-the-mouth movements for speaking selected words. Dr. Tobin and Dr. Titze will be among the six consultants to the project.
